PURPOSE CONTRACT

On this day _____, 20___, I _____ hereby commit my life to living in my purpose. I will seek, discover and find that which I am called to do. Once I find it, I will invest a few minutes every day to perfecting my talents and working on the gifts that I will share with all whom I come into contact with.

I know that I was meant to do great things. I know that I came into this world with something that only I can do. I believe those talents which I have been given I am required to give more in exchange for the gift of talent and purpose. And I am ready to commit to giving all of me from this day forward to give more of me.

I will not hold back. I will not refuse the opportunity to grow. I will not turn away the opportunity to learn. I will not refuse correction. I will become dutiful and disciplined in my design. If there is anything in me that keeps me from becoming that which I was designed for, I am committed to working hard to let it go.

I _____ commit from this day forward to live in possibilities not in limits. I commit from this day forward to use my mind to open doors. I commit from this day forward to use my heart to become wealthy in matters which are priceless.

I_____, hereby take this as a serious commitment to investing in finding and yielding to the purpose for which I was designed. And once I have discovered that true gift, I will use my God-given talents to share them with everyone I come into contact with without discrimination. I forgive myself in advance of any mistakes or missteps I may commit on my journey. I will use each day to not live in the past but to make inroads towards the future.

I ask those who know me to help me fulfill this commitment. And I am not ashamed to admit I am human and that I have flaws. This commitment is not a commitment to perfection but rather a commitment to striving very hard to be the best person I can be and to live the best life I can and to share the best of myself in every environment I serve.

I make this commitment on this _____day of this month _____ in 20_____.
